

Prince Rama was married to Sita in the city of Ayodhya.

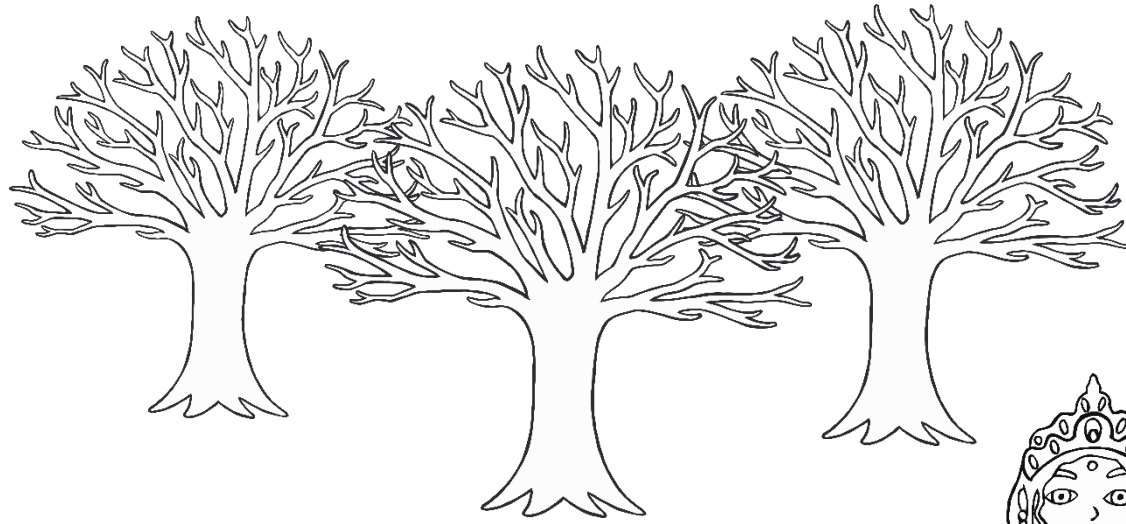

© 2019 Little Owls Resources

Prince Rama's Stepmother didn't want him to become king, so she sent Rama and Sita to live in the forest.

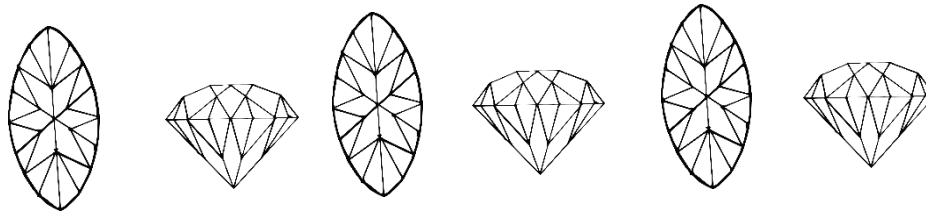

© 2019 Little Owls Resources

The demon king Ravana lived in the forest. He kidnapped Sita to be his wife.

© 2019 Little Owls Resources

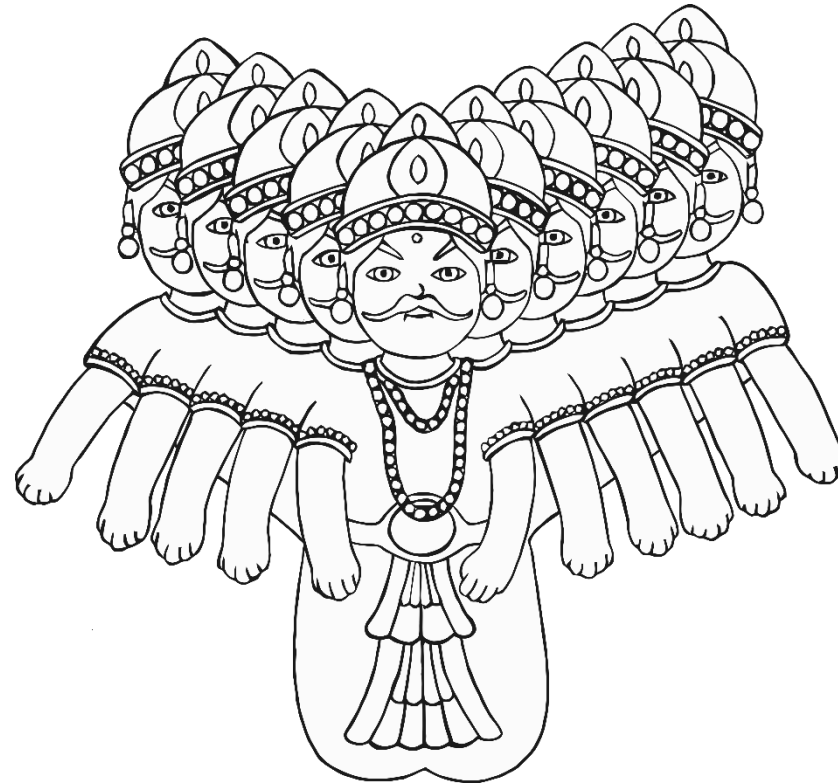

Sita cleverly left a trail of jewels so that she could be found.

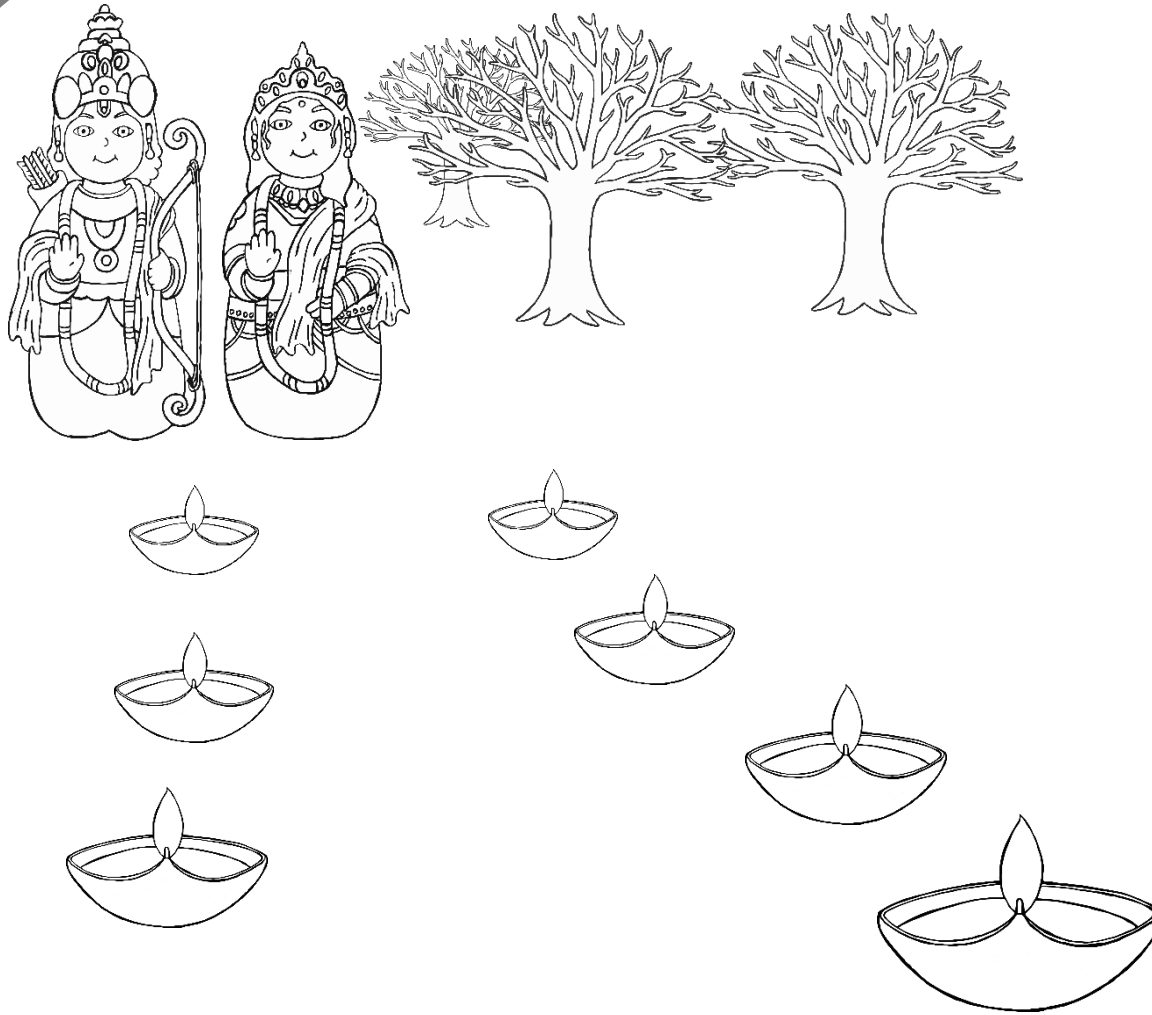

© 2019 Little Owls Resources

As he followed the trail, Rama met Hanuman, the king of the monkeys. Hanuman agreed to help Rama find Sita.

© 2019 Little Owls Resources

Rama defeated Ravana by shooting him with an arrow from his special bow from the gods.

The people of Ayodhya rejoiced! To guide Rama and Sita home again they lit the way home using diya lamps.