

Cow

- Eats hay and grain.
- Baby is called a calf.
- Milk is used to make butter, cheese, cream and yoghurt.
- Beef comes from a cow.

Horse

- Eats hay and grass.
- Baby is called a foal.
- Used for riding and pulling carts.

Donkey

- Eats hay, grass and straw.
- Baby is called a foal.
- Riding, carrying loads and protecting livestock.

Goat

- Eats hay and grain.
- Baby is called a kid.
- Milk is used to make butter, cheese, cream and yoghurt.

Pig

- Eats corn or soybean meal.
- Baby is called a piglet.
- Pork comes from a pig.

Dog

- Eats meat.
- Baby is called a puppy.
- Protects livestock and herds sheep.

Sheep

- Eats grass and clover.
- Baby is called a lamb.
- Wool comes from sheep.

Goose

- Eats grass and green vegetables.
- Baby is called a gosling.
- Eggs, feathers and useful on the farm as an alarm call when predators are near.

Duck

- Eats insects, weeds, grass.
- Baby is called a duckling.
- Eggs and feathers are used.

Chicken

- Eats insects, weeds, grass.
- Baby is called a chick.
- Eggs and meat are used.

