

Footprints for lining up.

Footprints outlines. Each child can colour them in individually and then add their name (or have it added for them).

After lamination the footprints can be placed along a classroom floor for lining up and every day the children line up they are looking at their name.

