

Valentine's Day Flower Orders

After being cut out the flower cards can be spread out on a table or on the floor in front of the child/children.

The speech bubble cards can be piled up ready for a child to pick one.

The speech bubble cards can be read by an adult or the child can use the numeral and colour clues to decode it for themselves.

Child then to fulfil the speech bubble request by finding the correct selection of flowers.

Have fun!

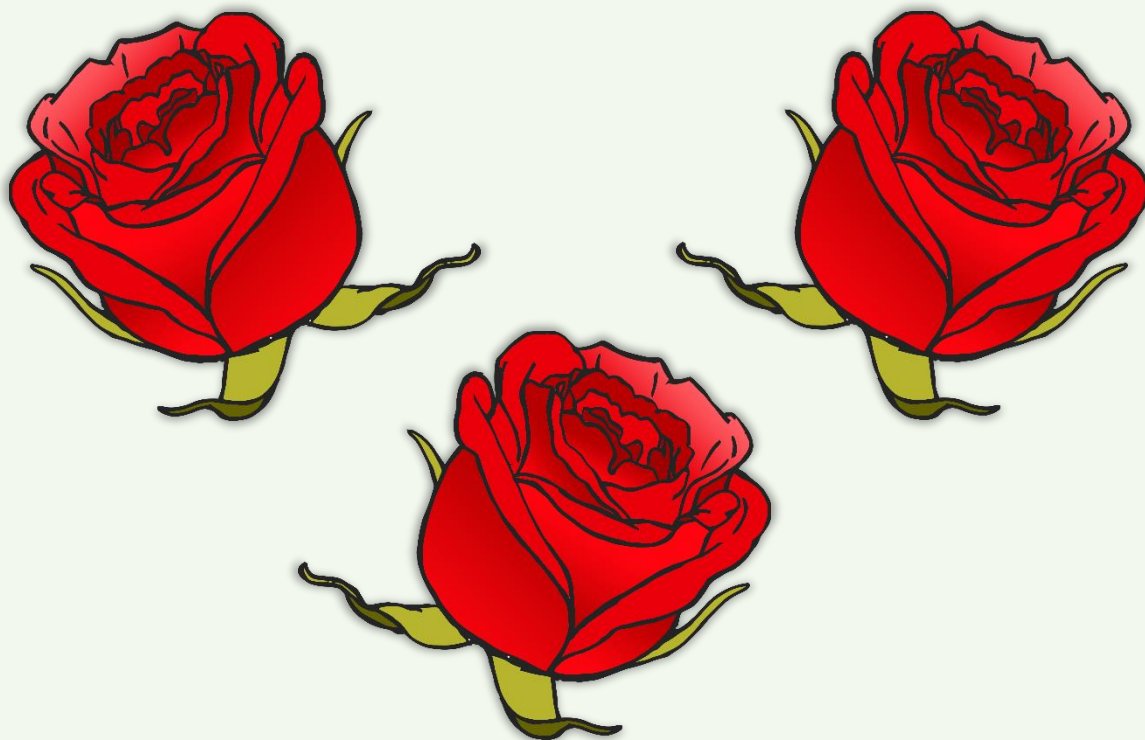

3

“Three roses
please.”

© 2021 Little Owls Resources

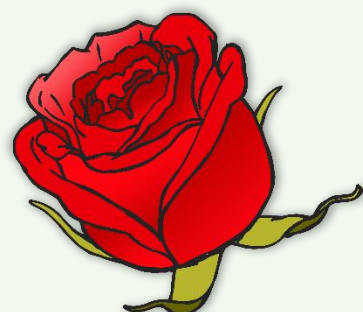

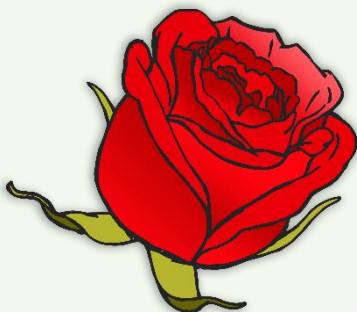

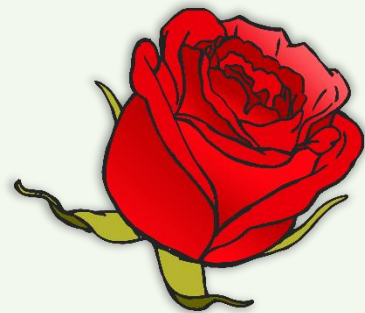

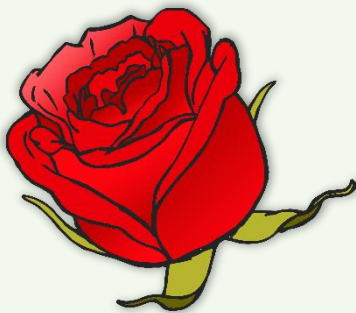

© 2021 Little Owls Resources

4

“Four roses
please.”

© 2021 Little Owls Resources

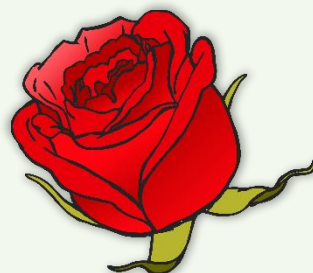

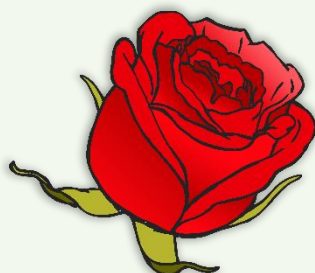

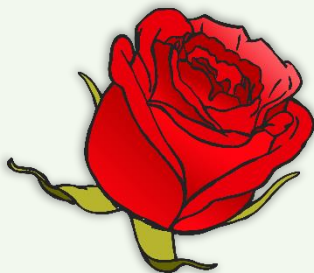

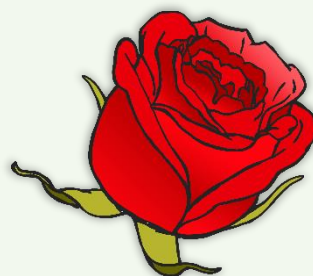

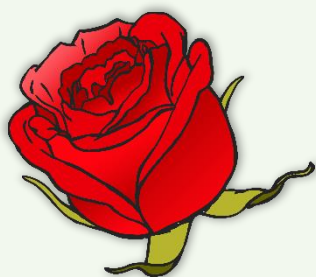

© 2021 Little Owls Resources

5

“Five roses
please.”

© 2021 Little Owls Resources

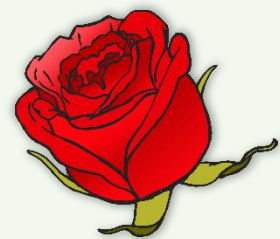

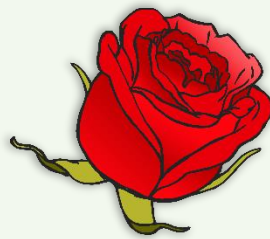

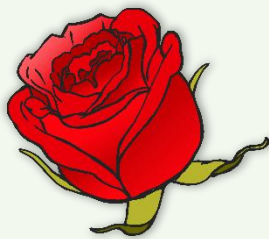

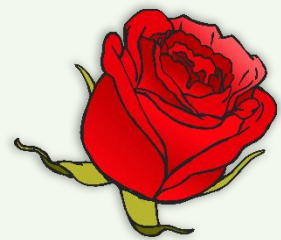

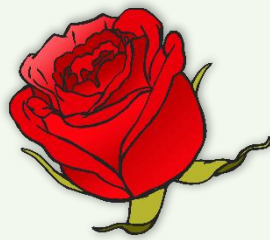

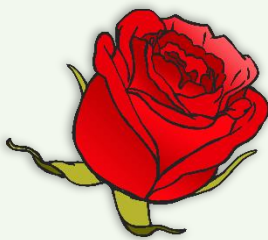

© 2021 Little Owls Resources

6

“Six roses
please.”

© 2021 Little Owls Resources

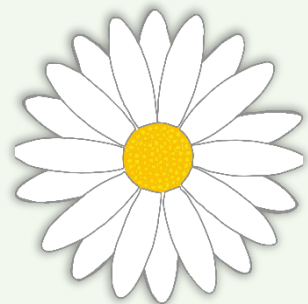

© 2021 Little Owls Resources

5

“Five daisies
please.”

© 2021 Little Owls Resources

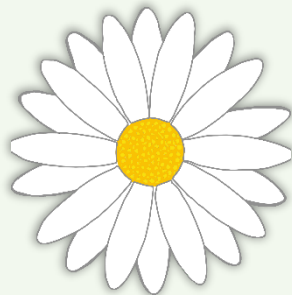

© 2021 Little Owls Resources

6

“Six daisies
please.”

© 2021 Little Owls Resources

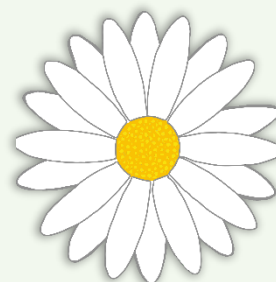

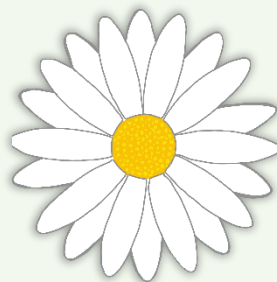

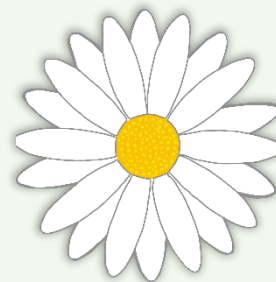

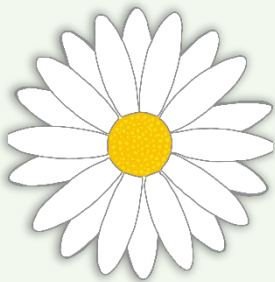

© 2021 Little Owls Resources

7

“Seven daisies
please.”

© 2021 Little Owls Resources

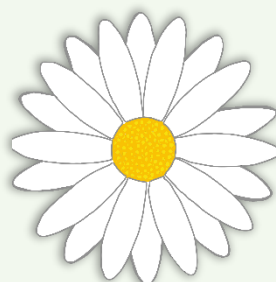

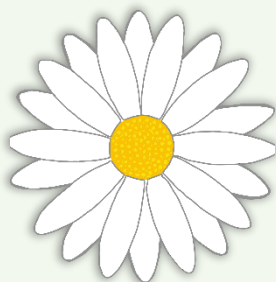

© 2021 Little Owls Resources

8

“Eight daisies
please.”

© 2021 Little Owls Resources

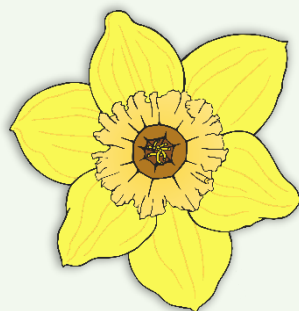

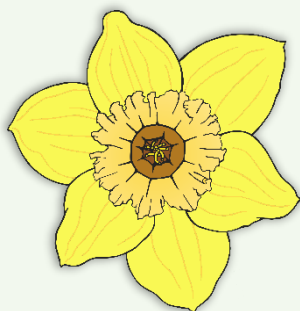

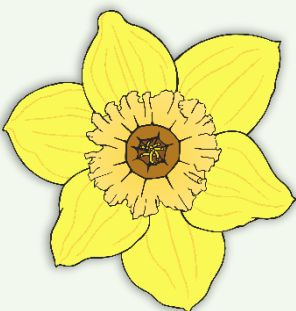

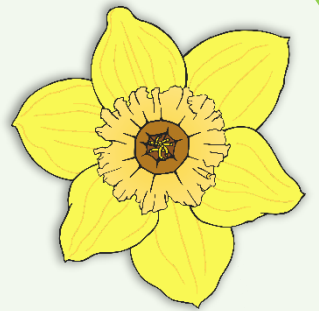

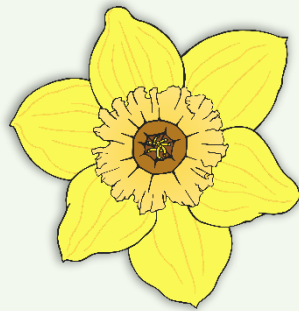

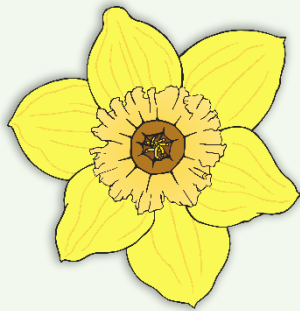

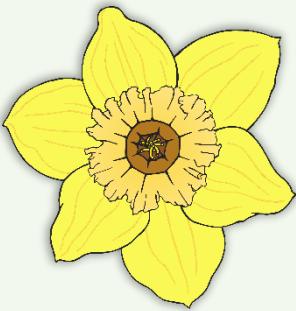

© 2021 Little Owls Resources

7

“Seven daffodils
please.”

© 2021 Little Owls Resources

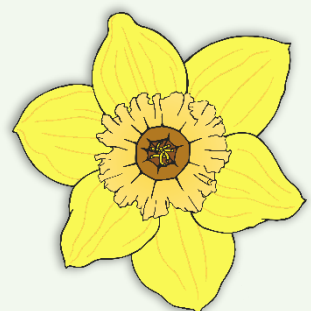

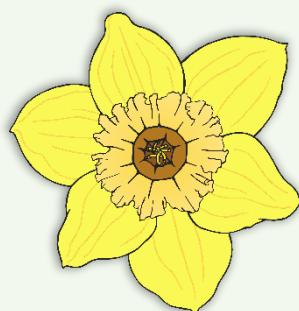

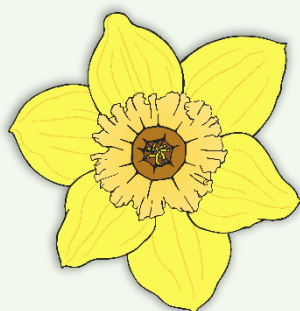

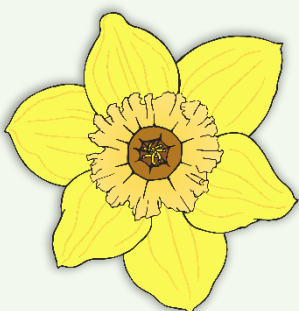

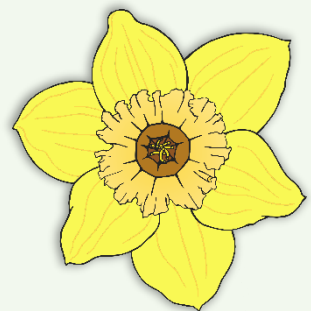

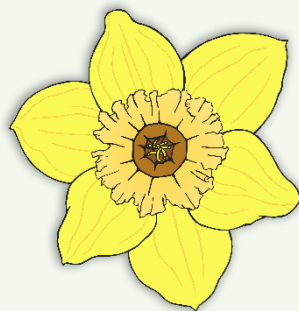

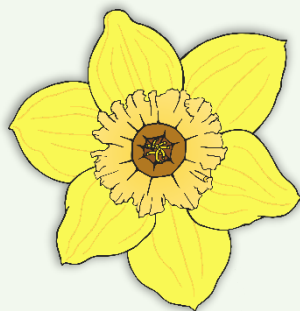

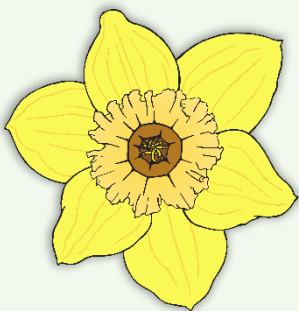

© 2021 Little Owls Resources

8

“Eight daffodils
please.”

© 2021 Little Owls Resources

© 2021 Little Owls Resources

9

“Nine daffodils
please.”

© 2021 Little Owls Resources

© 2021 Little Owls Resources

10

“Ten daffodils
please.”

© 2021 Little Owls Resources

© 2021 Little Owls Resources